

“QHI host our long-running,
weekly pub quiz here at The Circular.
They are a great team to work with.
Professional, attentive and creative,
keeping the quiz event fresh and interesting week in, week out.”

“Quizhost Ireland

was one of our most memorable office nights out.

Communication with Colin previous to the event was seamless.

He went as far as creating a deck with our company brand and doing a question round relatable to what we do here which made it even more fun, competitive and personable.

The quiz was so interactive and not like your standard pub quiz.

They have elevated it to a level that will blindside even your smartest colleague.

My entire office absolutely loved the experience
and have requested we do it again very soon.”

“An enjoyable and creative quiz hosted by Quiz Host Ireland gave Star Medical the opportunity to connect and engage our teams virtually, providing great entertainment for everyone.”

EMMA MCCONVILLE

“During lockdown we were actively looking at ways to engage with our teams socially to bring back the “craic factor”, QHI certainly did not disappoint.

Quiz Master Colin was a great host who controlled and engaged with all of our teams in a very interactive session that was well structured with a combination of challenging questions along with the old quiz favs.

The evening was filled with fun, laughter and banter definitely a recipe for success.”

“Just a quick note to thank you for hosting yesterday
and being such good people to work with.
I think our gang got a lot out of the day
and really enjoyed everything you had to offer,
from food to drink to militant quizzing.”
